What your report says

Your home scores 56 out of 100, which we describe as needs attention. Its strongest placements are the main entrance in the North-East, Bedroom 2 in the West and the Bonus Room in the North. We found 8 things worth looking at, starting with the staircase in the centre (Brahmasthan). Each one has at least one fix that needs no construction. Simply changing how two rooms are used would raise your score to 58.

03 · YOUR LOCATION

Adapted to Edison

Edison, NJ, United States · 40.519°, -74.412° · Northern Hemisphere

True north, not compass north

In Edison a compass points 12.2° west of true north (WMM-2025, 2026). That is enough to move a room into the next zone, so this report uses true north.

A phone or compass points to magnetic north, which moves over time and differs from place to place. Vastu directions are geographic, so this report corrects for the difference using the World Magnetic Model (WMM-2025 (NOAA / BGS)).

Your north was taken with a compass, so the correction has been applied to every room.

The sun over your home

The sun rises between 58° and 121° through the year (East is 90°), so the east side gets morning sun in every season.

At midday in mid-winter (21 Dec) the sun is in the south, 26° above the horizon; in mid-summer (21 Jun) it is 73° up.

Daylight runs from about 9.3 hours in mid-winter to 15.1 hours in mid-summer.

For most of the day the sun is on the south side of your home; the north side gets little direct sun in winter.

The chart shows the sun's path on the longest day, the equinox and the shortest day, seen from above with true north at the top. The centre is directly overhead; the outer circle is the horizon. Calculated with the NOAA solar equations for your city.

06 · 16 ZONES

The 16-zone view

The 16-zone division (22.5° each) is used in modern Vastu practice to locate rooms more finely. The classical texts work with 8 directions, which is what your score uses; the 16-zone view is shown for reference.

Main floor	NE Foyer · E Dining · ESE 2-Car Garage · SE Mudroom / Laundry, Powder · SSE Kitchen · SW Deck · WSW Family Room · WNW Office · NNW Guest Bedroom · C Stairs
Upper floor	NE Hall · E Bedroom 3 · SSE Primary Bedroom · SSW Primary Bath, Walk-in Closet · W Bedroom 2 · WNW Bedroom 4 · NNW Bonus Room · C Stairs, Bath 2

Numbers match the floor plans. Shaded segments contain at least one room; C is the centre.

Rooms are in floor order and numbered as on the floor plans. Fixes are shown for rooms that score below 60 or sit in the centre.

Main floor

1

Kitchen

PRIORITY

35 / 100

BEST PLACE	South-East, the zone traditionally linked with Agni (fire). North-West is the usual second choice.
THIS ZONE	Traditionally suited to heavy, closed rooms
SUN	Faces the midday sun: the sunniest side in winter and the easiest to shade in summer.
PLACEMENT	Cook facing east if you can. Keep the sink and the cooktop apart rather than side by side (water and fire), and keep heavy storage on the south and west walls.
NO COST	Cook facing East where the layout allows; move a portable cooktop only if it is easy to do.
NO COST	Keep the north-east part of the kitchen light and uncluttered; store heavy pots and appliances on the south or west side.
LOW COST	Use warm accent colours (terracotta, orange, red) in kitchen towels, mats or a feature tile backsplash rather than repainting.
LOW COST	Add a bright task light over the stove; good light on the cooking area is the common no-construction remedy.
IF RENOVATING	If you renovate, plan the range on the south-east wall.

08 · CENTRE AND ENTRANCE

The two places tradition watches most

The centre of your home (Brahmasthan)

Classical Vastu keeps the middle ninth of a home open, free of toilets, staircases and heavy walls. In many North American and Australian homes the centre is an open living area, which fits this well.

Door position on the wall: the 32 padas

Your door is in N5, in the primary zone of the North wall, 56% of the way from the NW corner to the NE corner. Door position score: 92.

N1	N2	N3	N4	N5 YOUR DOOR	N6	N7	N8

NW corner

NE corner

Your front wall faces about 33° from true north. The pada method works with the four main directions, so the nearest one, North, is used.

This is already the best-scoring position on this wall.

This position sits at the center of the wall — the position most fully expressing the direction's own character, without influence from either adjoining direction. In the North direction — traditionally linked to opportunity, career growth and the flow of resources, and associated with Kubera, traditionally regarded in Vastu literature as the guardian of wealth and resources — this pada reflects primary-level alignment with those qualities.

Same method and numbers as the VastuIQ Pada Calculator and Main Door Vastu Checker.

09 · BEST USE OF YOUR ROOMS

Get more from the rooms you have

No construction: just a change in how two rooms are used. Rooms stay on their own floor, and a room only takes a bedroom if it is big enough.

Use the Guest Bedroom (North) as the home office / study

Your overall score with these changes: 56 → 58. Only worth doing if the rooms suit your family; every other fix in this report works either way.

COMPLETE REPORT

Classical texts were written for Indian homes. This is how their principles apply to the features of yours.

Garage	Your garage is in the East (Needs attention). Garages are traditionally best in the north-west, the zone of movement, with the south-east as a second choice. Keep it tidy, store heavy items along its south and west walls, and keep the door into the house closed.
Staircase	Your staircase is in the Centre. Tradition prefers stairs in the south, south-west or west and discourages them in the centre or north-east. Stairs are rarely moved; keep the area under them clear of toilets and prayer spaces, and keep the stairway well lit.
Open-plan kitchen	In an open kitchen, the position of the range (cooktop) matters more than the room's walls. Tradition places the range in the south-east of the kitchen, with the cook facing east. Your kitchen is in the South.
Basement	No basement was included. If you have one, Vastu guidance most often suggests using it for storage, recreation or parking rather than as the primary bedroom, and keeping its north-east part the lightest.
Your situation	As an owner you can choose the renovation-level fixes, but none of them are needed to follow the rest of this report.

13 · YOUR 90-DAY PLAN

A calm, step-by-step plan

COMPLETE REPORT

Spread over three months so nothing feels rushed. Tick each item as you go.

Week 1

No-cost steps, most serious first

- ☐ Keep the area under the stairs clear or use it only for light storage; avoid a toilet or prayer space there.
- ☐ Keep the door closed and the toilet lid down; keep the room dry and well ventilated.
- ☐ Keep the room spotless; clutter and damp are what traditional guidance most warns against here.
- ☐ Cook facing East where the layout allows; move a portable cooktop only if it is easy to do.
- ☐ Keep the north-east part of the kitchen light and uncluttered; store heavy pots and appliances on the south or west side.
- ☐ Place the bed against the south or west wall so you sleep with your head to the south or east.
- ☐ Keep heavy furniture (wardrobe, dresser) on the south-west side of the room.
- ☐ Keep the door closed and the lid down; keep the room clean and dry.

Weeks 2–4

Low-cost steps

- ☐ Light the staircase well and keep it uncluttered.
- ☐ Place a small bowl of sea salt on a shelf and replace it monthly — a common traditional remedy.
- ☐ Use light, neutral colours; avoid dark tones in a north-east bathroom.
- ☐ Use warm accent colours (terracotta, orange, red) in kitchen towels, mats or a feature tile backsplash rather than repainting.
- ☐ Add a bright task light over the stove; good light on the cooking area is the common no-construction remedy.
- ☐ Use earthy tones (beige, sand, soft brown) in bedding and rugs.
- ☐ Place a small bowl of sea salt on a shelf and replace it monthly.
- ☐ Good lighting at the garage entry into the house.

Months 2–3

Keep it up, and plan ahead

- ☐ Walk through the home once a week: is the north-east still light and clear, and the centre open?
- ☐ If you renovate: if you renovate, plan the range on the south-east wall.
- ☐ If you renovate: if you can choose between bedrooms, use the south-west bedroom as the primary bedroom.
- ☐ Run your plan through VastuIQ again after any change to see the new score.

15 · ABOUT THIS REPORT

How it was made

Your floor plan	Our AI read the room names and positions from your plan, and you confirmed north, the outline, the main door and every room before this report was made. Every space was matched to a room type.
Directions	True north for your city from the World Magnetic Model; each room's direction is the true bearing from the centre of the home to the room's centre, in eight zones of 45°. The middle ninth of the home is the centre (Brahmasthan).
Scores	VastuIQ's classical tables, the same ones used for our reports on Indian homes, unchanged in every country. No AI decides a score: the same plan always gives the same result.
Your score	Weighted average of each scored room and the main entrance (VastuIQ classical tables), minus up to 15 points for rooms tradition keeps out of the centre. Rooms scored: 19; centre deduction: 12 points.
Sun	NOAA solar position equations for your coordinates. Sun notes are measured facts, not Vastu claims.
Southern Hemisphere	Practitioners disagree. This report follows the classical directions and shows the flipped view beside any room where it changes the reading a lot. The classical texts give no separate southern rules.
