3 Birth star and naming sounds

From the Moon's position at the time and place of birth. Each birth star has four quarters (padas), and each pada has a traditional first sound for the name.

Birth star	Pada	Moon sign (Rashi)	Born at
Mrigashira	1	Vrishabha (Taurus)	Mohali, Punjab, India, 07:15

वे	वो	का	की
Ve · pada 1	Vo · pada 2	Ka · pada 3	Ki · pada 4

The highlighted sound is the traditional first sound for the name. Many families also accept the other three sounds of the same birth star. Some regions use slightly different sounds, and Sikh, Muslim and Christian families usually choose names in their own way; your family priest or elders have the final word.

How a grade is given

- Name number is a friend of both the Mulank and the Bhagyank: 70 points. Neutral: 45. An enemy of either: 15.
- A traditionally lucky total (compound): +10. An unlucky one (16, 18, 29, 38, 43, 47, 52): -15.
- A name number of 4 or 8 when the Mulank is not that number: -10.
- With a birth time: starts with the birth-pada sound +20, with another sound of the same birth star +12. Without a birth time the number points are scaled to 100.
- Grade A 80 and above · B 60–79 · C 40–59 · D below 40.

9 Good to know

- Numerology and birth-star sounds are traditions, not science. Nothing here predicts a child's health, intelligence or fortune.
- A name that is easy to say, has a meaning you love and suits your family matters as much as its number.
- Birth-star sounds are matched by English spelling, which is a guide; regional sounds differ and your family priest has the final word.
- Meanings come from VastuIQ's name list, checked against common sources; many names have more than one accepted meaning.
- Your baby's details are kept only to make this report and are deleted from our system after 30 days.
